

MY SISTER WENDY,

who never left a meat drawer bereft of cheese or turkey, who never left a fruit bowl absent of bananas, who never left a head of hair disheveled, who never left a cat cold or hungry,
My sister Wendromeda, who never saw a flush draw she wouldn't gamble on,
who never made a laugh you couldn't quite hear,
who never had enough days off, who never thought of herself above others
My sister Wendre,
Lover of her family and Gus Hansen,
Protector of animals,
Master of Style,
A combination of Coolness and Kindness,
Unique and indelible,
We will never forget her, and We will always love her.
